The twelve-day training was organised by Sikkim State Disaster Management Authority (SSDMA) in collaboration with National Disaster Management Authority (NDMA). The Aapada Mitra Scheme aims to provide community volunteers with the basic skills required for responding to their community's immediate needs during and in the aftermath of a disaster. These trained volunteers will assist in saving lives using the basic techniques of disaster response, co-ordination and management.

The Minister congratulated the volunteers on the completion of the training and added that the scheme aids in times of distress. He also encouraged the volunteers to impart the skills acquired through the training. He asserted that such programmes in educational institutions involving the Panchayats and other stakeholders will help in developing a disaster resilience society. He also spoke about the State Government's efforts to mitigate the risk of occurrence of disasters in Sikkim and announced that Sikkim will host a national convention to discuss the effects of disaster and other mitigation measures faced by the State.

Joint Secretary (Policy and Planning-NDMA) Mr. Kunal Satyarthi informed that Sikkim is one of the top performing states of India to implement as well as train the volunteers under the scheme. He said that the training will not only help the volunteers in building life-saving skills, but also get an opportunity to play a crucial role in responding to and assisting in disaster-affected areas. Moreover, the volunteers will also be provided with insurance coverage up to 3 years in disaster response, he added. Additionally, he also talked about the NDMA programmes, schemes and other several initiatives taken up by the Government of India.

Secretary (LR&MDD) highlighted the programmes and activities under SSDMA in the State. He apprised that a total of 300 volunteers took part in the training with over 30 per cent of participants being female. Further, he said that the participants undertook the relief and rescue tasks in various disaster-simulated scenarios.

During the programme, SSDMA also released a News Letter. The programme also saw the distribution of the Emergency Responder Kit to the Aapada Mitra Volunteers by the chief guest. Moreover, the volunteers also exhibited their practical demonstration of the life-saving skills.

ECI delists 86 RUPPs

Gangtok: The Election Commission of India vide its Order no. 56/political parties/PPS-III/2021 dated September 13, 2022 has delisted 86 Registered Unrecognized Political Parties (RUPPs) for non-compliance of the provisions of the Representation of People Act, 1951 and other guidelines of the ECI.

The list includes the following Registered Unrecognized Political Parties of Sikkim:

Sikkim Gorkha Prajatantrik Party, Sikkim Himali Rajya Parishad Party, Sikkim Jan-Ekta Party, Sikkim Liberation Party and Sikkim Sangram Parishad.

Reasons for delisting: Under section 29A (4) of the Representation of People Act 1951, all the political parties are statutorily required to register their address of communication with the Election Commission of India and section 29A (9) of the Representation of People Act 1951 mandates that every political party should communicate any change in its name, head office, office bearers, address or in any other material matters to the Election Commission of India without delay.

Further, section 29 C of RP Act, 1951 requires a Registered

Unrecognized Political Party to furnish a contribution report every year as prescribed in Form 24A under Rule 85 B of Conduct of Election Rules, 1961. The political parties are also required to furnish Audited Annual Statements, flowing from ECI's transparency guidelines dated 29.08.2014. And upon participation in an election, political parties are required to furnish their election expenditure statement within 75 days, in case of Assembly Elections and 90 days in case of Lok Sabha elections.

Further, in the 13 (ii) (e) guidelines for registration of political parties issued by the Commission for condition of registration, it is stated that the party must contest an election conducted by the Election Commission within five years of its registration and thereafter should continue to contest. If the party does not contest elections continuously for six years, the party shall be taken off the list of registered parties.

Since it is seen that abovementioned political parties are not available at the registered address as per the remarks given by the Postal Authority with respect to the undelivered letters sent to their registered address and since these political parties have not complied with the other provisions of the law and guidelines as mentioned above, the Election Commission of India, in exercise of the powers under Article 324 of the Constitution of India and Section 29A of the RP Act, 1961, has deleted the names of these political parties from the list of registered political parties maintained by the Commission under the said Section 29A and para 17 of the Election Symbols (Reservation and Allotment) Order, 1968, vide its Order no. 56/political parties/PPS-III/2021 dated 13th September, 2022.

If any political party is aggrieved with this decision of the Election Commission of India, they may approach the Office of Chief Electoral Officer, Sikkim or the Election Commission of India within 30 days from the date of issue of the aforementioned Order along with all evidences of existence, other legal and regulatory compliances including year-wise annual audited accounts, contribution reports, expenditure report, updation of office bearers including authorized signatories for financial transactions (including bank account).
